5. Allotment of sites shall be made only to persons who satisfy the conditions prescribed by the Board.

6. It shall be within the discretion of the Trust Board to decide which class of sites will be disposed of by drawing lots. Whenever lots have to be drawn, it must be done only at an open meeting of the Trust Board, due intimation thereof, being given to the Trustees before hand.

7. Disposal of all sites except by public auction should be approved by Government.

8. As soon as possible after the confirmation of allotments by the Board, notices shall be issued to the allottees intimating the allotment. Earnest money of the applicants, who are not successful shall be refunded in full. Persons to whom sites have been allotted by tender or otherwise must pay the full value of site within 90 (ninety) days of allotment and this period may, however, be extended by another 60 (sixty) days subject to a payment of interest on the site value at 6 per cent, and arrange to take possession of the site after executing the prescribed documents.

If payment is not made even after the expiry of extended time, the allotment shall be cancelled and the earnest money forfeited and the site otherwise disposed of.
